

NOW MORE THAN EVER

WHY THE 2025 PARTNERS IN COMMUNITY FORESTRY CONFERENCE IS A MUST-ATTEND EVENT

With increasing pressure on local infrastructure, growing demands for livable communities, and heightened interest in the benefits of green spaces, community forests have never been more important. In Henderson, Nevada, the 2025 Partners in Community Forestry Conference will bring together professionals from across the country who are committed to strengthening communities through the power of trees.

This is more than a conference; it's a chance to shape the future of urban and community landscapes through collaboration, innovation, and action.

WHAT YOU'LL GAIN BY ATTENDING

Professional Development with Purpose

Earn International Society of Arboriculture Continuing Education Units (CEUs) in several domains, including arboriculture, science, and management. Sessions are designed to equip you with the tools, data, and strategies to lead change in your community.

Exclusive Pre-Conference Partnering Events

Arrive early and take part in peer-to-peer pre-conference gatherings, including Alliance for Community Trees Day, Urban and Community Forestry Society Conference, Forests in Cities, and more. These events offer specialized content, peer networking, and practical insights.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

If you're working in — or adjacent to — urban forestry, this conference is for you:

- Community foresters and municipal leaders
- Utility professionals and city planners
- Educators and campus sustainability staff
- Healthcare and public health professionals
- Environmental nonprofits and community advocates
- Researchers and students
- Corporate sustainability and ESG leaders

Unmatched Networking Across Sectors

Meet with leaders from municipalities, nonprofits, utilities, health organizations, universities, and private industry. Forge new partnerships, share your work, and get inspired by what's happening across the country — and beyond.

Real-World Field Experiences

See community forestry in action. Explore innovative projects across the Henderson region that demonstrate the powerful intersection of trees and people.

INVEST IN THE FUTURE AND YOUR ROLE IN IT

The future of our cities is being written today, and community forests are on every page. Join us at the 2025 Partners in Community Forestry Conference and be part of a growing movement that's changing how communities grow, heal, and thrive.
